Brandeis | GRADUATE PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Your Brandeis UNet Account

All students are assigned a Brandeis UNet account. Using your UNet username and password, you can log into LATTE, Sage, and your personal Brandeis University e-mail account.

If you enrolled in courses prior to acceptance, you have already been given a Brandeis UNet account. If you currently do not have a Brandeis UNet account, one will be assigned to you a week prior to the start of the registration period. Your Brandeis UNet account information will be sent to the email address we currently have on file. If this has changed, please contact Graduate Professional Studies (GPS) at 781-736-8787.

Brandeis E-Mail Account (http://go.brandeis.edu/gmail)
- This is the official method of communication by the University.
    - Instructors will contact you via your Brandeis e-mail address.
    - Check your account daily, especially during courses, as you are responsible for being aware of all information sent to you at your Brandeis e-mail account.
- Your UNet email address can be set to forward mail to another email address.
    - If you choose to forward your University email, you are still responsible for all the information, including all attachments, sent to your University email account.
- Password and challenge questions can also be reset.
- Go to https://identity.brandeis.edu/identity/index to view your account settings.

Sage (http://sage.brandeis.edu)
Sage is the academic records system for students, instructors and staff. It is used to register for courses, view grades, and update personal information such as address changes.

LATTE (http://latte.brandeis.edu)
Learning and Teaching Technology Environment (LATTE) is Brandeis University's online learning environment. LATTE is used by instructors to share readings and multimedia; accept assignments; and organize online discussions with their students.

If you have any questions or are not aware of your UNet account, please contact GPS at 781-736-8787 or gps@brandeis.edu
